

11:00 - 11:30 AM

Cultural Presentation of the history of the TA'OVALA and its PRODUCTION, a wrapping worn around the waist by Tongans. It's significance and relevance in today's world. Take a photo with this important piece of Tongan culture!

12:00 - 12:30 PM

Cultural presentation of the disappearing pastime of HIKO. Performed only by women, a juggling game with unknown origins and rhythmic chants, Tonga is the only Pacific island nation where HIKO is performed by every female on the island. Sadly, the pastime is fast disappearing and its memory forgotten. Keep HIKO alive, juggle with us and receive a free Kahoa (Lei)!
